

SHIKHARJI AT SIDDHACHALAM

Shikharji is called Teerthraj, the foremost Jain place of pilgrimage. Twenty of the 24 Tirthankars of the current avasarpini attained moksha here. So did countless others.

We have an extraordinary and rare opportunity to create a complete replication of Shikharji in America at your teerth and give our future generations a heritage to be proud of.

Bhoomi Pujan and Khanan, August 28- 29, 2010

Donation and Details

Donation for Bhoomi Pujan (purification of ground): U.S. $1,008

Donation for Khanan/ khaat mahurat (ground-breaking): U.S. $1,008

- All are cordially invited to be part of this historic occasion
- All donors will perform Bhoomi Pujan/ Khanan
- Names of all donors will be engraved in marble at Siddhachalam, recognized at samaroh and announced by Siddhachalam
- All donors will be honored with commemorative souvenir for their contribution to the world's first complete replication of Teerthraj Shikharji
- Please see FAQs inside for more details

* See overleaf for Hindi and Gujarati translations

Siddhachalam logo above is taken from a stained glass window in the main temple and visually presents Hreem, Om and Arhum. In the background are shown two sadhvijis on way to Shri Parasnath Tonk at Shikharji